Ely Folk School Business Annual Memberships

The Ely Folk School is an experiential learning school focusing on traditional crafts and skills associated with Northern Minnesota's heritage. We offer short-courses and events for folks of all ages involving hands-on, cooperative learning in a non-competitive environment. A key and cherished component of our school is nurturing community. When you participate in a class or event you help build community by joining other curious individuals to share interests, ideas and experiences.

Do your business proud and gain public recognition by supporting the school that benefits our local instructors and draws residents and visitors alike to Ely's downtown core. Member benefits are outlined below.
