

Teach – Learn – Create

Become a Member of the Ely Folk School

The Ely Folk School is an experiential learning school focusing on traditional crafts and skills associated with Northern Minnesota's heritage and wilderness legacy. We offer classes, workshops and events for folks of all ages involving hands-on, cooperative learning in a non-competitive environment. A key and cherished component of our school is nurturing community. When you participate in a class or event you help build community by joining other curious individuals to share interests, ideas, and experiences.
